

Training - Cognos Business Intelligence

We recommend customers support their investment in Cognos business intelligence, with training that is vital to the success of the Cognos business intelligence system. Saphere recognise the importance of qualified training and offers training via Cognos which can be incorporated into a project. We would recommend users roll-out their training starting with Cognos Finance first, which lies at the heart of the Cognos Business Intelligence system.

All standard Cognos Business Intelligence and Cognos Finance courses are available - from single day updates to full week administration fast-track courses. Bespoke on site Cognos Finance training can also be arranged.
